

Trauma-Informed Practice (TIP) Webinar Series

Registration Now Open for Webinar #1

TIP in Practice: A cross-sector panel discussion and sharing of ideas on practical applications of TIP (JIBC course code COUN-1045)

Date: December 3, 2019

Time: 3 pm - 4 pm

During this one-hour TIP webinar, you will meet four cross-sector TIP Champions who will share their practical applications of TIP within their sectors, followed by a cross-sector panelist Q&A session, and concluding with an opportunity for you to ask questions.

For those enrolled in or who have completed the TIP Foundations courses (either online or online and in-person), the TIP webinar will solidify what you have learned. For those who are new to TIP, this will be a great introduction to the topic and will provide you with practical takeaways.

How to Register

TIP webinars are free of charge to all members of the justice, public safety and anti-violence community sectors in British Columbia (i.e., police, corrections, Crown, lawyers and victim service/anti-violence programs). There are no prerequisites for this first webinar.

To self-register for the TIP Webinar:

1. Visit jibc.ca/register
2. Select Browse for courses now and enter COUN-1045
3. Select the tab Register Online - Continuing Studies
4. Click on the course name Trauma Informed Practice - Special Topics
5. Click on the Register button to complete your online registration form

For registration assistance

Email: register@jibc.ca
Phone: 604-528-5589 or
1-877-528-559
Visit: jibc.ca/tip-jpsav

Meet Your TIP Champions

Hear from TIP Champions in your sector as they share their experiences on how they successfully implemented TIP and how you can apply it in your work.

Your Mentor

Maureen McEvoy, MA, RCC, has been in private practice for over 20 years. Maureen works with individuals, couples and groups, and is a long-standing instructor with the JIBC, teaching other counsellors skills for working with survivors of child sexual abuse, domestic and other traumas.

Your Panelists

Dalya Isreal began her journey with WAVAW in 2005 as a Victim Services Medical Support Worker. In 2019 she was appointed Executive Director of the WAVAW Rape Crisis Centre. Dalya is dedicated to amplifying survivor's voices and ensuring that WAVAW is a place where they feel seen and heard. She regularly presents at local professional development days to share best practices for responding to victims/survivors of sexual assault.

Sergeant Heather Matthew has been with the RCMP for 17 years, where she has predominantly worked with vulnerable persons investigating crimes against women, children and the vulnerable sector. Sgt. Matthew is currently posted to BC RCMP Headquarters as the Domestic Violence Coordinator in the Crime Prevention Services Section. In this position she is responsible for training, policy and investigative reviews through a domestic violence lens.

Carrie McCulley started with BC Corrections as a probation officer in the lower mainland in 1990. As the Director of Programs and Interventions since 2008, Carrie is involved in a number of initiatives ranging from development and implementation of behaviour change programs for Corrections clients to leading the Trauma Informed Practice Guide Team for BC Corrections.

Michelle Merry is Crown Counsel with the BC Prosecution Service. She obtained her law degree from UBC in 2006 and was called to the bar in BC in 2007. She is currently the assigned Crown for the Bella Bella and Klemtu Circuits and also handles youth files at Robson Square.

