Summary:

Reporting through the Senior Accounting Supervisor, this position reports to the Assistant Controller and is responsible for performing a variety of financial support functions relating to accounts payable and accounts receivable. The Financial Services Clerk is a member of a team that is supportive and works towards creating a positive team environment for the benefit of the entire division.

Primary Responsibilities:

Accounts Payable:

The position is responsible for full cycle Accounts Payable (AP) duties, and also acts as back up for other AP positions:

- Timely and accurate processing of vendor invoices, staff and student expense claims, and corporate credit card purchases into Unit 4;
- Checking and verifying documents for proper authorization, coding rates, tax calculations, and matching to supporting receipts;
- Reviewing and ensuring all payment requests are in compliance with JIBC Financial Management policies and procedures;
- Generate cheques or direct deposit batches as applicable for weekly payment cycle;
- Post purchase orders into Unit 4 and ensure proper application of balances to vendor invoices;

- Process pre-authorized debit payments;
- Investigate and take corrective action for stale dated or lost cheques;
- Correct AP transactions to general ledger through journal entries;
- File paid invoices and other reports relating to accounts payable;
- Respond to enquiries from academies/divisions regarding accounts payable matters including JIBC Financial management policy and procedures and application of sales tax;
- Liaise with suppliers, investigating outstanding statement items and resolving discrepancies and payment related issues; reconcile Unit 4 vendor sub-ledger accounts to vendor statements and ensure that accounts are current;
- Fill out company and reference sections on credit check forms from new vendors;
- Stay current with Canadian sales tax legislation and in particular legislation relating to Education and Public sector;
- Ensure timely posting of accounts payable transactions to meet monthly and annual reporting objectives;
- Petty cash reconciliation and duties;
- Other Finance Division duties, as assigned.

Accounts Receivable:

The position works in a co-operative team environment with Accounts Receivable (AR):

- Process and prepare accounts receivable trade invoices and credit memos; check and verify cost centre and general ledger account coding; check for proper inclusion of sales taxes and apply Institute surcharges in accordance with financial management procedures;
- Apply payments (cash or internal) to customer sub-ledger accounts;
- Daily cash application to Unit 4;
- Formulate and journalize prepayments and overpayments to the general ledger;
- Reconcile and balance accounts, generating statements and a variety of financial reports;
- Ensure all sales and payments are posted to the proper accounting period according to Generally Accepted Accounting Principles; meet the monthly reporting objectives of the Finance Division by processing transactions within strict deadlines;
- Make soft collection calls to customers with outstanding debt and within standards set by the Finance Division; negotiate and persuade customers with delinquent accounts to make payment; communicate status of problem or disputed accounts to Supervisor;
- Maintenance and review of aged receivables report by matching credits and debits and investigating delinquent balances; make recommendations for refund of credit balances to Supervisor;
- Respond to enquiries from JIBC staff regarding customer accounts and matters regarding internal procedures; assist JIBC staff with enquiries regarding coding, sales taxes, and surcharges;
- Respond to customer enquiries and provide assistance to Registration staff on accounting issues;
- Other Finance Division duties, as assigned.

Qualifications & Requirements:

- Completion of Accounting certificate or diploma offered by public post-secondary Canadian educational institution; or other acceptable equivalent courses;
- Minimum one-year experience in accounting/finance;
- Proficiency in Excel;
- Good working knowledge of accounting principles and practices relating to accounts payable, including leaving and following an audit trail;
- Ability to formulate journal entries relating to position responsibilities;

- Basic understanding of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles as related to accounts payable and receivable;
- Basic understanding of financial statement implications to position responsibilities;
- Good working knowledge of sales tax rules, both Provincial and Federal;
- Fast and accurate data entry skills in a high volume and detailed oriented environment;
- Ability to set priorities, multitask, and organize own workload to meet rigid deadlines;
- Ability and interest in learning and mastering a complex set of rules.
- A high service orientation and the ability to work through conflict in a tactful and diplomatic manner;
- Ability to discuss matters of dispute with a variety of internal and external stakeholders, using fact, logic, and superior listening and communication skills to gain co-operation and resolution.

Additional Information:

- Occasional overtime may be required.

Note: Short listed candidates will undergo testing in the following:

Accounting test, Data Entry, Typing, Excel and Word.

Please note this part-time position also qualifies for benefits, including Extended Health and Dental after six months.

Salary Range: $25.55 to $27.33 per hour (BCGEU Salary Grid 11)
