Justice Institute of British Columbia:

The Justice Institute of British Columbia (JIBC) is a public, post-secondary institution that provides education and training to those who'll be there to support British Columbians and others around the world, when a life is at stake or when health, safety or property is in jeopardy. Work for JIBC and be a part of the big picture – supporting justice and public safety professionals at all stages of their careers in fields including law enforcement, firefighting, paramedicine, security and emergency management.

As a JIBC employee you'll play a role in our educational programming, which also includes complementary and related areas of study – from conflict resolution, mediation, leadership and counselling, to cybersecurity, business intelligence, and tactical criminal analysis – as well as applied research in the justice and public safety fields. Join our team and help us prepare JIBC graduates to contribute to safer communities and a more just society.

Position Summary:

JPSD includes law enforcement studies, corrections and court services, policing, security, and continuing professional education. Programming ranges from short course training through to degrees. Law Enforcement Studies Programs include a diploma, post-baccalaureate diploma, and a bachelor degree, which offer graduates the knowledge and skills to be ready to apply for work in law enforcement and public safety sectors. Our programs emphasize applied knowledge and experiential learning, while developing a wider remit of competencies including conflict resolution, interpersonal communication and research and scholarship.

Central to the success of the JIBC's vision of being a world leader in justice and public safety education are our instructional faculty. Experiential and applied learning can only occur if our faculty possess the practical and expert knowledge of field practitioners. In addition, they must also have and exhibit a firm understanding of teaching, learning, and adult education. JIBC faculty are vital to ensuring that JIBC students experience an education that is rich and meaningful.

Primary Responsibilities:

Classroom teaching and student support functions:

- Develop and implement a syllabus which conforms to the learning outcomes for the course;
- Design teaching and learning strategies that align assessment and evaluation methods with course objectives;
- Encourage discussion and help students make connections between theory and practice;

- Field and respond to questions related to course content and assignments;
- Encourage student participation, monitor student progress, and assess student performance;
- Mark and provide feedback on all course assessments;
- Collaborate on a regular basis with program faculty, managers and staff to support student success and progress

Qualifications & Requirements:

- At minimum, a Master's degree in a related discipline and a minimum of two years of documented teaching experience;
- Experience with the subject matter;
- Experience working in public safety field is preferred;
- Effective written and oral communication skills;
- Ability to maintain collegial working relationships with students, staff, administration and other instructors
- Excellent organizational and problem-solving skills with a proven ability to work under pressure while satisfying student requests and applying relevant program and institutional policies, procedures and guidelines;
- Demonstrated proficiency at the intermediate level in Blackboard, Microsoft Office applications, and web browser applications.
